RESTRUCTURE OF RSTITUTION PAYMENTS

During periods of unemployment, you shall submit monthly restitution payments in the amount of $25.00. While employed, you shall submit monthly payments of $100.00.

CAUSE

At the time of sentencing, the offender was employed by Explorer Security Services as a security guard. However, in July 2017, the offender was terminated due to the fact that the Division of Licensing Services of the New York State Department of State (NYS DOS) declined to renew her security guard license due to her conviction for the instant offense. The offender appealed the decision and is awaiting the results of a hearing held before the NYS DOS. In the interim, the offender had been collecting Unemployment Insurance benefits through the New York State Department of Labor at a rate of $216.00 per week. On November 20, 2017, the offender began employment with the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation. According to the supervising officer, despite numerous admonitions regarding her failure to make monthly restitution payments, subsequently only two payments have been made, totaling $75.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan E. Karlak
